

Archivist's Awards Ceremony

MAY 7, 2015

National Archives, College Park, Maryland

Welcome

TO THE 15TH ANNUAL ARCHIVIST'S AWARDS

Welcome to the 15th Annual Archivist's Awards. This first week of May is designated as Public Service Recognition Week, and this year's theme is Government Works. Public servants do amazing things across our great nation and around the world. So it is especially appropriate this week to recognize the outstanding achievements made by our colleagues here at the National Archives and Records Administration.

The accomplishments we salute today are prime examples of the work we do every day toward our four strategic goals:

- Make Access Happen
- Connect with Customers
- Maximize NARA's Value to the Nation
- Build Our Future Through Our People

It takes every one of us, working together, to successfully pursue NARA's mission to provide public access to Federal records. Our mission is a lofty one and serves the needs and interests of people today and far into the future. Records matter and what we do matters.

We see dedication to this mission in every part of NARA across the nation, expressed in the work of every person in every facility.

To the award recipients: congratulations on your achievements. To all our staff members: thank you for your efforts day in and day out in the service of our mission and of the American people.
